

English

- Using our phonics to segment words for writing
- To write sentences including capital letters, finger spaces, full stops and question marks in the correct places.
- To retell traditional tales from around the world based on animals.
- To create our own versions of the stories that we have focused on.
- To retell a book we have read in detail.
- To identify, explain and use nouns, adjectives and plurals.

Mathematics

- Place value with numbers to 20.
- Compare numbers to 20.
- Add and subtract amounts to 20.
- Place value with numbers to 50.

P.E.

- Moving in different ways.
- Moving to music.

Art

- Create observational drawings.
- Use different materials to create animal prints.
- To make animals using clay.

Computing - Digital art and E- Safety

- Explore how to stay safe online.
- Creating digital art.
- Improving and editing what we have created.

Forest School

- Seasonal change
- Camouflage
- Bird watching

Geography

- Exploring ariel maps.
- Discovering views of the globe.
- Identifying land and sea.
- Identifying and describing different natural landmarks.
- Exploring different places around the world.
- Finding out about different weather around the world.
- Describing the different vegetation in a range of habitats.

Year 1 Spring 1 Carnival of the animals

Science s Animals including humans

- Investigating, describing and grouping different animals.
- Using equipment during an experiment.

Music

- Carnival of the animals
- Exploring pace, pitch and tempo

PSHCE s Growing and changing

- How we have changed,
- How you look after a baby.
- The difference between secrets and surprises
- Keeping our privates private.

RE:

- What is the Torah
- Why is the Torah special to Jewish families?